Henr Milner servant of Joh de Lye on Mond after St Matt 33 Edw 3 & Henr Will Fladirkyn at Okham: a strife arose between Henr. p Will: Will assaulted Henr: Henr. ran away from Will. in the direction of the will at Okham: Will took a short cut in pursuit: met Henr: and pulled him to the ground with a stick; then Henr. seeing no way out of his dangerous position, struck Will once only in the breast with a certain knife called a Thuytel, whereof he died. The Jury decide that Henr. had no other way out his difficulty. Henr is therefore placed in custody to await the pleasure of the King.

On Mond a. St. Denis 50 Edw 3. Friar Joh de Ocheam Brother of the Order of Augustinians, Stamford, charged that on Friday next before the Nativity of the Virgin Mary 50 Edw 3, he broke into the house of Henr weaver of Gyltham at Gyltham & stole 2 gowmes with 13^s 4^d, one baseland worth 6^d, one pouche with a belt, & one bi culltell with 5^s, & 8 silver marks in coin. He pleads that he is a clerk, & will only answer his ecclesiastical ordinary: so Joh reads like a clerk, yet no one appears in court to claim him. A jury which is empanelled say that brother Joh is guilty of the robbery & felony, so he is handed into the custody of the constable of Okham castle in defect of the ordinary claiming him. His chattels are worth 40^s for which Simon Ward is responsible. Katherine Yermuth on Sunday within the octave of the Nat of St. John the Baptist at Kelton
