 Lindon was his native town
 And John his designation
 Polished in speech he gained renown
 By Oxford graduation
 In doctor's robes he blossomed forth
 Of merton Hall a fellow
 Pleasing to all at Oxenford
 In fact and lore full mellow
- At length to Glaston town preferred
 His corse beneath this marble lies
 His soul adorned by manners grave
 May he be blessed with Christ to rise!
 Here then he gained that Sabbath sweet
 Which all by God's first law must keep
