172 1/2 Jan 12. Widow Berry of Exton having late buried her husband who died intestate & she being left in but indifferent circumstances & being also very big with child & unable to take a journey out of the house. I have given her an oath and taken a bond which you have endorsed & likewise an inventory in Stamps. You have enclosed in the bond Threese shillings which are a pair of gloves for yourself, you may be pleased to send the instrument to M^r Bunning or myself. I should not meddle in it but for the reasons above mentioned & considering likewise that if she should dye the Court woulde went on ad-mission
