Charge to be considered when the Rector and Church wardens have given their version of the matter

2 Dec

Writing produced under the hands of Clement Tookey George Tookey Baldwin Barker John Colson George Bale John Walbank and William Bale, parishioners, in presence of dominus Robert Cawdree alleging that the said parishioners have the whole number of their belles as it is testified at the bell which went to be cast away being heretofore their great bell is now become the least so that the saide parishioners save unto their owne purses x^l at least.

The Churchwardens are warned to apply this x^l to no other purpose than the use and advantage of the church: Baldwin Barker, John Walbank, and George Alton are warned they will be articled. The Rector saith that the church of painl have paid this x^l for one close and one house.

1589 Sept 2. George Tookey's hogs are putt in the churchyard.

1578 ~~Sept 2~~ That Robert Cawdree the Rector solemnized matrimony between Sir John fflosbrooke Rector of Cranford and his now wedded wife in tent last being in time prohibited without license and authority: the consent of my lord bishop according to this injunction ought to have been upon the sufficient commendacion of the woman requested.

June 30 R. C. is inhibited a divinum celebracione vel officii ministeria ex-

1595 June 30 John Cobb, clerk, M. A. justifies his presentation to the Rectory by the Earl of Exeter as follows: - 1^o he hath been acquainted with my lord of Bureghley but a while, but by testimony all of his sufficiency he obtaineth his presentation
2^o It is bestowed upon him of the good liking his lordship hath of him and his conduct
3^o He obtaineth the same freely and without covardice
4^o For any thing that he as yet knoweth he intendeth to enjoy it himself
(5^o He has executed no bond regarding his appointment)
6^o The livery is worth in the Queen's book xj^l as he beleveth.
