~~1577 Wild blood charged with causing discord and very unfaithful~~
~~23 Sept this duty during the time of celebrating divine service. He~~
~~was also accused before Sir Thomas Cecill, and was dismissed~~
~~with a caution~~

Dec 2. Churchwardens sent for not appearing at the Visitation.

Paul Gresham was charged by the Rector, John Bent, with not paying his due tithe. In his first examination he states:-

(4) "As for paying of auye tithe willowes or thowes he saieth "he never paied auye neither will except he be adiudged by "lawe so to do. And as touching the sheepe, he saieth he hathe contented "the said parson for the tythe of theym arysinge other things and as "for the rest certified in the schedule he deemed that he ought had auye suche "manner wherefore he the said parson shall have hadd auye tythe And "as to the rest of the tythes he saith he hath satisfied for all among other "things excepted right or justice which he is redie at all tymes to give "to the said parson."

(7) "~~He saieth~~ the said parson hath demanded the said tythe of this "respondent & he hath satisfied the same as before."

(4) He hath answered as fullie and playnlie as he came to theffect "articles affore & then he was last examyned as appeareth in the "rowlles & thynge ther dicte. That he hath rather paied him more than "his dutie than lesse. Et alr. nescit deponere de hoc artic.

(5) That there were no such nombre of keyne as is mentioned in "the libell but for those that were he hath alreadie satisfied the "said parsone. And concerninge the tithe of the Sheepe & Milke he "saithe that there is no suche custome of payinge the moneth "fleese iff they be sold before maye daie. But as for those that "were sold he hath repaied him according to the custome of the "saide parishe. And also for garden money he saithe that is due "but he hath paied it and also the waxshot he hath paied it. et alr. nesc. deponere

(6) "Concerninge the payment of thowes willowes, he saith as before. "And concerninge the marcas money and waxshot money he "saith he hathe satisfied the same parson."

The Churchwardens bring a charge against the Rector, John Bent, which he admits to be true. (Charge not specified).

The Rector states (3) Truth but yt is that in the moneth and yere articulate "or in one of them he was examined by vertue of his corporall oth of the "trewth of the contents of the libell of defamacion mentioned in the said ar- "ticles At which tyme he being seduced by an evell instruc & did con- "trary to his conscience and trueth utterly denye the contents of the "same. And further he saieth, that he the said respondent after that "tyme repenting to himself and repairing his sentence did confesse "the trueth privatelie to the Superiors articulate with a contrite "minde. (5) That he beleveth that the saide Anne Butler was not "full chylde at the tyme of the saide deprivacion and examinacion "given and made, for she the saide Anne was delyvered about "half a yere before. (6) That he hath done very ill in forswearing of "himself and therfor reserveth himself to the Lawe and my Lord "and desireth favor"
