1589 Sept 2 The Rector is not resident and the church is in decaye and the church windows

1577 Apr 23 Anthony Woodcock, Rector, is presented because the chancel govell in W. is in decaye; that he ministered the Communion at Easter day with out a surplices: that they have not had their sermons orderly: that they have not had their register of Christeninge & because the parson will not write it, devising it to be his dutie. They have not had their Catechism not orderly taught — The Rector is charged wth these cha.

May 14. Anthony Woodcock the Rector, answered [that the chancel govell of Wardley Church is in decaye and also the chancel glass windows; & that he the parson ministered the Communion without a surplice on Easter Even last; and that they have not had their sermons orderly; and that they have not their register because the parson devised it to be his dutie to write it: And that they have not had the catechisme orderly taught] that there is a stone or two loose in the govell end of the chancel and that there is a little hole or two in the glasse windows [The Rector is ordered to put these defects right before the coming Michaelmas]: That the said surplices was not in readiness, but was in the house, and not drye enough to be worn: that he appoynted his curat to write it for him and that from henceforth it should be done: that some Sundayes he hath omitted the teaching of the catechisme and that the greatest occasion why he left teaching of the catechisme became he cannot make his parishioners to bring their youth to the church. For the sermons he saith there hath been more sermons preached in his church than if he should have had them but quarterly and because the said sermons were not made quarterly at the end of any quarter therefore he was presented because he had two or three sermons in one quarter, therefore his parishioners liked not so well of it.

1578 Edward Liptrot of Belton is a common ale house haunter as well at Common Prayer

May 10 hymne as at other tymes (John Diccon, text.)
