 benefice by such a reader."

Robert Ridd afterwards R. of Stoke Dry held this benefice for some years previous to 1583. He had been ordained by Thomas Watson bp of Lincoln as a non graduate Stamford scholar in 1558. He held some other benefice (possibly Lyddington) in 1570. for 14 this year Whitwell was in charge of Hugh SRawoods, a reader - with the note "It is not meet to give this benefice by such a reader." In 1570 The seats in the Church be fully broken & their standeth a great filthy water stock. Otherwise omnia bene. In 1582 They lacke their quarter sessions.
