Village Visit to Edith Weston Saturday 14th September 2019

Edith Weston, part of Queen Edith's marriage settlement when she became the wife of Edward the Confessor in 1045, has been a community for at least a thousand years. It is in many ways a typical Rutland village, but its location next to Rutland Water and North Luffenham airfield, now St George's Barracks, has had a significant effect.

The Venue for this Visit is the Village Hall, 1 Rectory Lane, Edith Weston LE15 8HE.

- 2.05 Aspects of Edith Weston – A PowerPoint Presentation by Debbie Frearson.
