Please Note: The New General Data Protection Regulations that come into force on 25 May 2018 require the society to obtain consent from each member for their information to be stored by the Society. Information held by the Society is for accountancy and communication purposes only and is not shared with third parties. Failure of individual members to provide such an agreement will prevent the Society from communicating with them. If you are in agreement with your information being held by the Society, please tick the Data Agreement box below. If you wish to exclude either your telephone number or email address or both from the permission, please write EXCLUDE in the Tel: or Email: space.

	I agree to my data and personal information, of the kinds described above, being stored by the Society and used for its declared purposes.		I am a UK taxpayer and would like RLHRS to treat any subscription I pay to the Society on or after 6th April 2018 as a Gift Aid Donation
